

GLOBAL STATE OF PAY

People want easier access to and control over their money

At the moment, people are struggling to make ends meet

43%

have put off making a purchase between paydays

35%

have gone without non-essential items

44%

have borrowed money to cover their costs

20%

have missed a payment or made it late

People want to get paid faster and more often

17%

of respondents want to get paid as frequently as they do now

59%

agreed that worrying about running out of money between paydays is stressful

52%

said receiving their salary more frequently would help them manage their finances more effectively

Money management apps can help people take control of their finances

82%

said using a banking app during the pandemic helped them pay all their bills

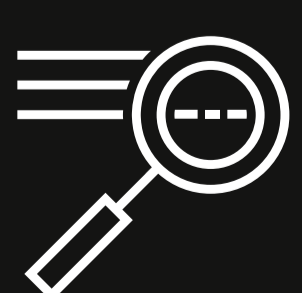

70%

said they'd be likely to use an (open banking-enabled) solution to manage their financial affairs

81%

liked the idea of a tool that allowed them to set and manage a budget or track their spending

For more information, please visit mastercard.com/startwithpeople